Chili has become aggressive towards some United States Sailors.

But uncle Sam says that Chili is very small and don't want to hurt her, but she must behave.

Pope Leo XIII is in a precarious condition.

There seems to be remaining for him a choice of exile or death.

The trouble arose from some French Pilgrims.

The San Antonio Express think that while various monuments are being erected in memory of the great.

That Texas might fall into the line and erect one at the Alamo.

The Rannels county Ledger now comes to our office just as big as any body.

It has been enlarged and is now a kind of double-barrel arrangement.

My! how the child do grow.

On Wednesday of last week John Bull shot Tom Jones in the jaw with a Winchester.

The wound though painful is not supposed fatal.

Both parties live in Mills county near Goldswaile.

Secretary Hester, of the cotton exchange gives the following as the cotton movement up to Oct. 23.

2,998,888 bales against 2,098,682 bales up to the same date last year; a gain of 899,796 bales.

Atlanta, Ga., has unveiled a handsome statue, erected in memory of a statue.

The city was filled with people to witness the ceremony.

David B. Hill of New York was the orator of the occasion.

Ex-Gov. Hubbard captured the Trans-Mississippi congress, assembled at Omaha Neb. with a fine oration in which he pictured Texas, and her many advantages and unlimited resources.

The pretty, new, $42000 court house at Childress Texas was burned to ashes Oct. 21, supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Insurance $10,000. All the records of Childress county and Cotton county were lost.

The State Superintendent has ordered another special meeting of the Board of Examiners to take place Nov. 6th, 7th. All who want to teach and are yet to be examined should take advantage of this and be on hand promptly.

When the Llano extension is built, then we may get ready with our bonus for a road from the North, as it is quite probable some northern road will make connection at Llano, and by San Saba is the most valuable.

The Morgan steam ship lines from Galveston to New York via New Orleans has withdrawn from Galveston and turned its traffic to New Orleans. This is a serious blow to the commercial interests of the Island City.

A wild Texas steer escaped from the stock pens at Allegheny Pa. Some of the city gentlemen were very polite giving the steer all the street while he made others hard to catch.

Five were slightly gored by the enraged animal.

The white caps who had given thirty days warning to Mr. Cupps living near Mt. Sterling Ky., made a raid on the residence of Mr. Cupps, but were promptly met with a couple of shot guns and two of the white caps went down, while the others scampered away.

The following words appeared in Cleveland's great speech at Brooklyn N. Y.

"The party we oppose resting upon no fundamental principle, sustaining a precarious existence upon a distorted sentiment and depending for success upon the varying currents of selfish interest and popular misconception, can not endure the sight of a community which is inclined to withstand its blandishments and which refuses to be led away by its misrepresentations."

We did not know that the Republican party could be gone all around and through and through in so few words. But Cleveland has a way of saying a mighty heap in a few words.

Estrey Notice.

Taken up by E. S. Bilberry and estrayed before H. C. Nooten, Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 5, San Saba County, Texas.

One saddle horse about four years old, branded M D on neck on left shoulder, said horse is about 14 hands high. Appraised by W. E. Nolan and J. E. McKinnis at twenty dollars.

Witness my hand and seal of office at San Saba, Texas, this 12th day of Oct. 1891.

A. Duggan, Co. Clerk San Saba Co.

They Say.

That it is dry.

That business is substantial.

That with two opposites his heart is sorely vexed.

That our county attorney feels better when the prospector from Temple is at home.

That Montgomery looked natural at his "stand."

That Dan has a new picture, and don't he smile.

That John was seen on our streets several days last week, but he was not seen on the streets after dark.

"The boy, O where was he?"

That J. D. H. is hard to collect from, as he rather prefers Owen.

That, not many days ago there was in our town a certain Hunter, and from accounts we think he found her.

That Charles has become antagonistic towards the Weed.

That Nix has not doffed his watch.

That there are some rings in town but we can not learn the particulars as there is no GAB in it.

That although Charlie's business is in East San Saba yet he occasionally goes west.

That of all the colors Archie prefers the brown.

That Tom G. don't see why Cleveland named his daughter Ruth, as Anna is a much prettier name.

That Tom H. seems to think white the emblem of all loveliness.

That Boyd wants to learn Art, and from the regularity of his visits we think he will be able to draw the artist pretty soon.

That, if we don't get up the fair some one ought to give a sociable.

That "Love looks with the eyes and not with the mind."

There fore is winged Cupid painted blind."

That "A little nonsense now and then. Is relished by the wisest men."

Ed. News.—We have had no rain of consequence since 9th, of last June. We have made good crops of corn, wheat and oats. Cotton crop is short.

Grass is good where not over stocked and the bees have failed to get in their work, the cutting of one bee tree, caused E. Campbell and W. L. Hayes to loose about 3000 acres of their best grass by fire.

The firm of Calloun & Kinveon of Fredonia have made an assignment.

The firm of Mabry & Son of Pontotoc have also made an assignment recently.

A great cry from Runnels, Coleman and Coke counties comes down to us for patronage. I have been told sheep can be bought there for 90 cents and cattle for four dollars per head, on account of the scarcity of grass and water.

W. L. Hayes and Sons will move their stock to the far West in a few weeks, they have just returned from an extended prospecting tour over the West and South western part of the state, and appear to be well pleased with their future prospects, so San Saba county will soon loose one of its earliest settlers, he says if he can get a new county, a new county can get him, he has found a country where the Texas are only 55 cents on the $100 and no iron bridges to build. He says his ranch is for sale, cheap.

Yours 1000ly as a brick after my own heart. Yours & Co. OZONA.

'I Can Trust My Boy Anywhere.'

We hear this expression from parents occasionally. Sometimes with an assent that the confidence is not misplaced; sometimes with a feeling of intense pity for the blindness of parental affection. A few fathers and mothers retain the unreserved confidence of their sons even after they have grown to be men, and these can feel sure of not having their faith betrayed.

But with much the larger number this is not the case. The sons of some very direct parents imbibe principles and contract habits of which the "old folks" have no suspicion. Not unfrequently the boy, but slightly advanced in his teens, has made a progress in the courses of sin at which his tender hearted mother would be absolutely appalled. But she knows less of these things than do others. Her love blinds her to indications which would lead her to suspect if not to fully know, that things are not going right, if she were not so fond. She may therefore, in all innocence, dwell upon the goodness of her sons, while her hearers who are acquainted with their short-comings, will suspect her of hypocrisy. The father keeps on believing that his boys are deporting themselves as they should when every one else knows how sadly they are going astray. All this might not be so, did not parents so readily receive offense at the attempt of any one to tell them of the faults of their children. It is a task upon which the most intimate friend will hardly dare venture. The pastor, to whom the parents will go for advice and consolation, shrinks from letting them know that their son visits dram shops and frequents gambling houses. It is a well known fact that most fathers and mothers will regard such information as an impertinence, and will cherish a lasting resentment against the informer. Such being the case, it is small matter for wonder that people will see the sons of their best friends going on to ruin without saying a word of it to the persons who are most interested. It is quite as small a matter for wonder that parents often continue under the delusion that their boys are getting along well, when every one else knows them to be on the high road to ruin. It would be better if persons after becoming parents would recollect something of what they were as young people. They would not then take it for granted that their sons are what they ought to be, or be offended with those who give information of the going wrong.—Sunny South.

When we took charge of the San Saba News we found a fair list of subscribers. Since, several have paid up and advanced their subscription. We have added 100 names to the list, but there yet remain several subscribers 2, 3, 4, and 5 years behind. We requested those behind to pay up. Now without trying to be hard on any one we would like all parties knowing themselves behind to pay up. We need the money. We appeal to those behind and earnestly request that they come in and settle up.

Four of the men who robbed the train on the Southern Pacific road have been captured. But one of them preferred death to being taken prisoner, and when he saw no hope of escape he committed suicide. They had in their possession about $1800 when captured.

Cheatham's Tasteless Chili Tonic has gradually made its way into almost every southern state; we might say, every southern family. It could not have done this had it not been a medicine of rare merit. When you have children give it an honest trial and it will surely cure you. Price 75 and 75 cents. Guaranteed. For sale by T. M. Gray.

Tyler seems to have put on her war paint last week. Hon. Felix McCord and Hon. W. S. Herdon indulged in a street combat in which canes and bricks went flying in the air. Hon. Horace Chilton, and Chas. T. Bonner met and gave vent to their pent up feelings of personal dislikes, they complimented each other with the "damned lie," then quietly went their way. It is probable the county funds will be slightly increased.

A gigantic opium smuggling scheme which has successfully operated in and about Puget Sound on the Pacific coast for a number of years has just been ferreted out and the information put into the hands of the Treasury department of the United States. This is the most enormous combination to systematically swindle our government ever known in the history of our Republic. The conspirators are Chinese and American. Some of the most prominent men are implicated, including among others, two United States Senators, and five Congressmen. The information though full yet at present, it is of such a nature that the Treasury department is at a loss how to proceed in the matter.
